

Lecture Series „Applied nature Conservation“

University of Greifswald

Winter semester 2017/2018, Wednesday 2.15 pm – 3.45 pm

MICHAEL SUCCOW STIFTUNG
zum Schutz der Natur

– Introduction – 18.10.2017

International Applied Nature Conservation

Prof. Dr. em. Michael Succow

Michael Succow Foundation for the Protection of Nature

Lecture contents

MICHAEL SUCCOW STIFTUNG
zum Schutz der Natur

Date (Wednesdays, 2-4 pm)	Issue	Topic	Person
18.10.	Introduction	Introduction to international applied nature conservation	Michael Succow
25.10.	Protected areas, land management and biosphere reserve development	Establishment of Indawgyi Lake Biosphere Reserve, Myanmar	Kirsten Meuer
1.11.		Uzbekistan: Climate protection through pistachio cultivation	Jens Wunderlich
8.11.		Ethiopia: Awash and Hallaydeghe protected areas	Renée Moreaux
15.11.		Planning, monitoring and evaluating nature conservation projects	Uli Gräbener
22.11.		Conservation activities in Kaliningrad region (in German)	Christian Welscher
29.11.		Master plan of protected areas in Uzbekistan	Rustam Murzakhanov
6.12.		Biosphärenreservate im Iran (in german)	Rana Kaviani
13.12.		Proposed World Heritage: The Hyrcanian forests in Iran	Hannes Knapp
20.12.		Ethiopia: Lake Tana Biosphere Reserve	Michael Succow
10.1.		Peatlands and conservation	Greifswald Mire Centre: International expertise in peatlands, examples from Eastern Europe
17.1.	Belarus/Ukraine: Peatlands and Paludiculture		Andreas Haberl
24.1.	Coastal tropical peatlands - Hidden treasures of the Caribbean		Jan Peters
31.1.	Protected areas development	Protected area development in Azerbaijan	Sebastian Schmidt